

STATEMENT OF INSTITUTIONAL PURPOSE

Mission Statement : The Mission of Oikos University is to educate men and women to be the leaders to serve the church, local communities, and the world by using their learned skills and professions in the areas of biblical studies, music performance, Asian medicine and practical vocational nursing.

Institutional Objectives:

1. To demonstrate a comprehensive knowledge of the Bible and an understanding of Christian doctrine
2. To develop an appreciation for the Korean and Korean-American church denomination heritage including its knowledge, history and distinct.
3. To instill a desire for lifelong commitment to personal spiritual growth through daily Bible study and prayer.
4. To develop attitudes of service and commitment to the local church and world missions.
5. To equip students with competitive knowledge, skills and attitude for success and enable students to manifest their perspectives.
6. To provide students with competitive knowledge, skills and attitude for success in their profession.
7. To prepare students for Christian service and vocation in the Church and society.
8. To instill a missionary vision to word-wide outreach and increase ethical standards in personal lifestyle.

Institutional Outcomes

In alignment with the mission and institutional objectives of the university, Oikos expects certain outcomes to be demonstrate in its graduates. Students graduating from Oikos will be evidenced by;

- Demonstration of a comprehensive knowledge of the Bible and Christian doctrine
- Description of Korean and Korean-American Church history
- Demonstration of personal spiritual growth and service to the local church or world mission
- Demonstration of critical thinking skills to solve problem
- Demonstration of knowledge and skills in their major field
- Ability to share their faith through effective communication

I have read this statement and I certify that I will abide by its provisions

Date

Name

Signature